

POST SYMPOSIUM TOUR 1 ::: DUBROVNIK & STON

About

A relaxing drive from Split, along the Adriatic Coast, through the picturesque landscape of the Makarska Riviera, across the Neretva River Delta and through the town of Neum, will bring you to Dubrovnik – the pearl of the Adriatic. Due to its exceptional beauty and rich cultural heritage, this ancient town was included in the UNESCO's list of World Heritage Sights. Dubrovnik is surrounded by fortresses and fortifications and is a real treasury of architectural and cultural masterpieces, carefully preserved through centuries. A pleasant stroll with an experienced guide will uncover the town's main sights, such as palaces, churches, museums and squares. In the afternoon, on the way back to Split, a short visit to STON, a historic site with medieval ramparts and the oldest salt farm in the Mediterranean. Optional OYSTER TASTING on the spot.

Highlights:

- Visiting Dubrovnik, an ancient town included in the UNESCO's list of World Heritage Sights
